8. Planning Applications considered in advance of this meeting of Council:

Planning applications detailed on the agenda were noted.

Members suggested an update is sought from TCBC regarding the following planning items

- 2 Garw Wood Drive as the decision is approaching 6 months but no action has yet been taken
- The car parking area at the top of Chapel Lane

9. Members Reports – Meetings of Outside Bodies

- Cllr V Crick – attended the Archive Day exhibition and advised members it was extremely interesting and included a display of CDC documentation. The archivist introduced the exhibition to attendees and discussed the information and pictures that were researched. Members were also advised that the exhibition would be going into Cwmbran Library

- Cllr V Crick – also advised members that the Crownbridge school café will be open Monday – Friday 11am – 2pm
- Cllr C Crick and Cllr D Williams attended the Torfaen Museum Trust AGM. Members were advised that the museum has had an extremely successful year and museum members are pleased with the turnaround and what the museum has been doing. A volunteer also discussed volunteer work and the skill base. Members were also advised that the museums work for the upcoming year has not yet been agreed as the SLA with TCBC has not yet been agreed, but they are hoping to maintain service at the same level including outreach work with schools, and that interesting negotiations are continuing behind the scenes.
- Cllr D Williams – advised members that the TVA AGM is due to be held at Garndiffaith Millennium Hall on 12th June 10am – 1pm

10. Items for Consideration

10.1 Red BT Phone Box at Ludlow Close, Llanyrafon

The Clerk advised members that BT have confirmed the telephone will be decommissioned and that the remaining phone box would be available to relocate, however costs would include refurbishment of the phone box due to them being prone to breakage, transport to new location and making the existing ground good. Members suggested a local contractor may be less expensive, and to add to BP as a potential project

10.2 Cwmbran Big Event

Members were asked for ideas for items to be purchased and distributed to residents at the Big Event, ideas suggested included sweets, pencils/crayons and seed sticks. Members agreed the Clerk and Administrator to look at different ideas and agreed a budget of £250

11. Any Other Business

11.1 Mic Morris donation request

Members agreed to add the organisation to the database of grant applicants and advise them that a grant form will be sent out when grant applications open in the Summer.

11.2 Youth issues at Harlech Close/Cardigan Crescent

Cllr J Gauden, TCBC, suggested members considered hedge planting to deter football and parking on grass verges however members agreed that as trees have recently been planted locally they want to ensure they establish before considering further planting.
