10. Members Reports – Meetings of Outside Bodies

- Cllr V Crick – recently attended the Friends of Bruchsal annual meeting where Howard Thomas was elected as Chair, Chris Morgan was elected Senior Vice-Chair and Andrew Mitchell was elected Junior Vice Chair. Members were also advised that an email was recently received from Bruchsal to notify of the newly elected Lord Mayor, Sven Weigt from CPU.
- Cllr S O'Dobhain – attended the Mic Morris meeting in June. Members were advised that the Mic Morris race took place this month with 1200 pre-sale entrants. The race raised approximately £30,000 which will support Sports Development Torfaen and local young people who participate in national sport.
- Cllr C Crick – attended a Torfaen Museum Trust board meeting and although they are viable for the current year it doesn't look positive for the following year due to being unable to rely on TCBC for financial support although they will provide non-financial support such as applying for grants
- Cllr S Matthews and Cllr N Davies - attended TCBC's partnership meeting

11. Items for Consideration

To authorise the purchase of Clerk Laptop

Members were provided a quote for a laptop suggestion

ACTION: Approved by Cllr D Williams, seconded by Cllr C Crick, agreed unanimously

11.2

To review and accept a policy for Councillor Allowance payments to be processed

Members discussed and agreed the different points within the policy. Cllr D Williams suggested the Clerk contact One Voice Wales to request examples of appropriate evidence if compensation for financial loss is applied for Full Council meetings. Cllr V Crick suggested that the policy should be applicable from the day following the meeting date where the policy was accepted. The Clerk advised members that the agreed policy will be circulated

Approved by Cllr C Crick, seconded by Cllr D Dewar, agreed unanimously

 Cllr M Price left the meeting at 6.40pm ***

- 11.3 To review and determine the Project Grant application from Croesyceiliog RFC
Members agreed that the procedure for consideration of project grant application is conducted at Business Planning meetings and should be deferred to be discussed at September's Business Planning meeting.

Approved by Cllr S Matthews, seconded by Cllr D Williams, agreed unanimously

 Cllr M Price returned to the meeting at 6.43pm ***

- 11.4 Visit Request from Mark Thomas – TCBC's Neighbourhoods and Environment Dept (See Clerks Report)
The Clerk advised members that at TCBC's partnership meeting, Mark Thomas requested to meet with Community Councils to work with communities and develop community engagement. Cllr S Matthews suggested Mark is invited to September's full council meeting, and that members should share any questions, topics and resident concerns to be sent to Mark prior to the meeting to allow sufficient time so answers can be discussed at the meeting. Cllr V Crick and Cllr C Crick suggested concerns including drainage issues in the wards are sent to members services prior to the meeting to notify them so that any works can be scheduled

ACTION: Members agreed unanimously

- 11.5 Drainage issues in the wards
Drainage issues were discussed and actioned in the previous item

12. Any Other Business

- Cllr C Crick queried the lack of response regarding speeding in the area following the Clerk's email to the Police Inspector, the Clerk advised a response has not yet been received but an additional email will be sent to chase a response
